This is a great commentary. It contains deep and provocative ideas that are written in an extremely accessible way. I highly recommend this for anyone who is looking to get a deeper understanding of the Gospel.

I really wish there was a way to give a rating of 3 1/2, I think overall the study provided decent structure, however often times the questions were rather leading and not necessarily in life application way. So many times I found myself trying to psychoanalyze the author.

I am using this book for a small bible study I'm doing with friends. I have to say I really like it because the chapters are not too long where you feel like you can't get through it week to week. The questions really make you think. They aren't just easy questions you can find the answers in the chapter you just read but they make you delve a little deeper. Creates great discussion!

Tremendous insight about Mark and the time of the age. NT Wright brings into the culture at that time and equates it with our present culture and issues. We still wrestle with these ancient issues.

It's a great book - very thought-provoking - goes beyond your typical - read the passage and the answer is right there - you really have to think things through.

As always, N. T. Wright is scholarly and readable. He gets right to the point and provides nuggets of spiritual insight for daily life.

Purchased the gospel series the books are quick thoughtful and perfect for new bible study. Nice couple study guidebook to use together

A very good way to lead a group through questions. Some of the questions are a bit interesting, but it leads to great conversations.
