Customer Reviews

This book is so beautiful! The illustrations are wonderful and imaginative. I also bought "M is for Monocle: A Victorian Alphabet." I highly recommend both books! These books are definitely a great way to help expand your children's vocabulary.

This is, perhaps, one of the cutest board books we own and the first time I haven't been let down by BabyLit. The concept is simple, being your typical "A is for..." type of alphabet book, but the illustrations are absolutely DARLING, the colors are lovely, and the quality of the material this book is printed on is high.

This historical alphabet is a delightful treat for parents and little ones. The art is sweet and cute with little historical details on each page. My favorites are D is for Dragon with a damsel in distress and X is for eXcalibur. I love showing the alphabet to my 6 month old and explaining some of the history to my two year old. Wonderful series, I'm looking forward to other time periods to add to our collection.

My kid loves the pictures and this gives new words to the ABCs!

Informative, and wonderfully illustrated. Happy to have won this book from a Goodreads giveaway.

I'm sure my future children will love it. :)
